TravelBank, its suppliers and service providers reserve all rights not granted in the Agreement.
- b. App Store Limitations. Company User acknowledges and agrees that the availability of the Application and certain Services is dependent on the third party from which it received the Application license, e.g., the Apple App Store or Google Play ("App Store"). Company User acknowledges that the Agreement is between it and TravelBank and not with the App Store. TravelBank, not the App Store, is solely responsible for TravelBank Properties, including the Application, the content thereof, maintenance, support services, and warranty therefor, and addressing any claims relating thereto (e.g., product liability, legal compliance or intellectual property infringement). As between TravelBank and Apple, any other claims, losses, liabilities, damages, costs or expenses attributable to any failure to conform to any warranty will be the sole responsibility of TravelBank.

- iii. The Parties acknowledge that, as between TravelBank and Apple, Apple is not responsible for addressing any claims Company User has or any claims of any third party relating to the App Store Sourced Application or Company User's possession and use of the App Store Sourced Application, including, but not limited to: (i) product liability claims; (ii) any claim that the App Store Sourced Application fails to conform to any applicable legal or regulatory requirement; and (iii) claims arising under consumer protection or similar legislation.
 - iv. The Parties acknowledge that, in the event of any third-party claim that the App Store Sourced Application or Company User's possession and use of that App Store Sourced Application infringes that third party's intellectual property rights, as between TravelBank and Apple, TravelBank, not Apple, will be solely responsible for the investigation, defense, settlement and discharge of any such intellectual property infringement claim to the extent required by the Agreement.
 - v. The Parties acknowledge and agree that Apple, and Apple's subsidiaries, are third-party beneficiaries of the Agreement as related to Company User's license of the App Store Sourced Application, and that, upon Company User's acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Agreement, Apple will have the right (and will be deemed to have accepted the right) to enforce the Agreement as related to Company User's license of the App Store Sourced Application against it as a third-party beneficiary thereof.

TravelBank Properties are controlled and offered by TravelBank from its facilities in the United States of America. TravelBank makes no representations that TravelBank Properties are appropriate or available for use in other locations. Those who access or use TravelBank Properties from other jurisdictions do so at their own volition and are responsible for compliance with local law.
- l) Dispute Resolution. To the extent that TravelBank, in its sole discretion, determines that TravelBank cannot adequately defend itself against claims or disputes in connection with or against Individual Users (e.g. through arbitration, mediation, and/or litigation) without bringing Company User into such claim or dispute as a third party, Company User expressly understands and agrees to join such claims or disputes as a third-party for the benefit of TravelBank.
- m) Changes to the Agreement. This TOS Agreement is subject to change by TravelBank in its sole discretion at any time. - c) Third Party Terms. When you redeem your Reward Points for products and services offered by third parties (e.g., flights offered by airlines, hotel accommodations), all products or services purchased through the redemption of Reward Points may be governed by such third-party terms. We may discontinue your participation in the Savings and Rewards Program. We may void or cancel your entire Reward Point balance at our discretion, for any reason, including if any Reward Points in your Account are issued, received, or redeemed through fraud or theft, or otherwise illegally, or not as authorized in these Reward Program Terms. RIDER B: SUPPLEMENTAL TERMS FOR TRAVEL RESERVATIONS PROGRAM

Last Updated: June 16, 2020

These Supplemental Terms (the “Travel Reservations Terms” or “Agreement”) governing the reservation, purchase, and use of all Travel Services (as defined below) offered for sale by TravelBank are incorporated into the TOS Agreement. All terms not defined in these Travel Reservations Terms have the meaning provided to them in the TOS Agreement.

All bookings of Trips are also subject to the Terms and Conditions of the Supplier of the Travel Service(s) incorporated in your reservation. By placing a reservation with TravelBank, you agree to abide by all the Terms and Conditions of the applicable Suppliers, and to be bound by the limitations therein. Expedia Partner Solutions terms and conditions apply and are available at: <http://developer.ean.com/terms/en/>. If the Supplier’s Terms and Conditions are ever in conflict with the Travel Reservations Terms (or TOS) of TravelBank, TravelBank’s TOS Agreement, including this Rider, will control all issues relating to the liabilities and responsibilities of TravelBank.

1. Definitions.

- a) “TravelBank” and/or “we” or “us” refer to Travelator, Inc. doing business as TravelBank.
- b) “Application” and/or “App” refers to the TravelBank mobile application (“TravelBank App”) that is available through the Apple App Store or Google Play.
- c) “Travel Service” and/or “Travel Services” encompass: airfare, including add-ons to airfare purchases; ground transportation, including car rentals and rideshare services; accommodations, including hotel rooms, room sharing, resorts, or other lodgings; travel planning, including consultation and logistics; trip insurance and any other travel or travel related products offered or sold by TravelBank.
- d) “Travel Reservations Program” is an additional component of TravelBank’s Services. TravelBank Users may secure Travel Services via the TravelBank App or agents.
- e) The term “Trip” is defined as any Travel Service, or package of Travel Services, offered or sold by TravelBank.
- f) “Traveler” is any User of the TravelBank App who subsequently books a reservation for Travel Services.
- g) Travel Service Supplier (“Suppliers”) are any third-party providers of Travel Services.

2. Modification of Our Travel Reservations Terms. Our Travel Reservations Terms may be amended or modified by us at any time, without notice, on the understanding that such changes will not apply to Trips booked prior to the amendment or modification. It is therefore essential that you consult and accept our Travel Reservations Terms at the time of making a booking, particularly in order to determine which provisions are in operation at that time in case they have changed since the last time you placed an order with TravelBank or reviewed our Travel Reservations Terms.

3. Prices and Surcharges.

- a) Only items and fees explicitly advertised as included in the price of a Travel Service will be included as part of Travel Service’s advertised price. We use commercially reasonable endeavors to publish and maintain accurate prices and information for our services via the TravelBank App and through our agents. Suppliers provide us with the price, availability and other information related to these Services. In the event, however, that a Service is listed or provided to us at an incorrect price or with incorrect information due to typographical error or other error in pricing or service information received from a Travel Service Supplier, we retain the right to refuse or cancel any Reservation placed for such Travel Service, whether or not the order has been confirmed and/or your credit card charged. If your credit card has already been charged for the purchase and your Reservation is canceled because of incorrect hotel, airline, or car provider information, we will promptly issue a credit to your credit card account in the amount of the charge.

- b) We expressly reserve the right to correct any pricing errors on our App and/or on pending reservations made under an incorrect price. In such event, if available, we will offer you the opportunity to keep your pending reservation at the correct price or we will cancel your reservation without penalty.
- c) Our prices are contractual tariffs. No claim relating to the price of a Trip will be considered once the reservation is effective. All prices are quoted in US dollars (USD) unless otherwise denoted. Rates for Travel Services are based on tariffs and exchange rates in effect at the time of posting and are subject to change prior to departure. Substantial changes in tariffs, exchange rates, the price of fuel, Services and labor sometimes increase the cost of Travel Service arrangements significantly.

4. Cancellation, Substitution, and Alteration Policies.

- a) Cancellations or Modifications attributable to Traveler: Cancellation, substitution, and/or alteration terms vary by Supplier. It is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with the terms of your Supplier prior to purchase, so we urge you to read them carefully.
- b) Cancellations and/or Alterations not attributable to Traveler: Due to Force Majeure or supplier requests, changes and/or cancellations may need to be made to confirmed bookings. While we always endeavor to avoid changes and cancellations, we must reserve the right to do so and to substitute alternative arrangements of comparable monetary value. TravelBank reserves the right to adjust the Travel Service or change the modes of ground and air travel, change the quality of accommodations or otherwise change the Travel Service without prior notice. We accept no liability for loss of enjoyment as a result of these changes. Any additional charges incurred arising from the postponement, delay or extension of a Trip or adjustment to the itinerary due to Force Majeure will be the Traveler's responsibility. TravelBank will attempt to provide Traveler advanced notice of any changes to a Trip or Services to the extent commercially possible.

5. Issuing Travel Documents. Travel documents will only be sent to the purchasing Traveler who places the order and personally agrees to these Terms and Conditions. Should you change your email address, phone number, or address before your departure date, you are required to advise us of the change. If a Traveler provides incorrect information to TravelBank, we do not assume any liability if the Trip is adversely affected or made impossible by the non-receipt of travel documents.

6. Travelers with Special Needs or Disabilities. If you have special needs (e.g., wheelchair accessible room, traveling with seeing eye dog, etc.) you must call all relevant Suppliers for your Trip ahead of time and verify that special needs can be met. Depending on their terms and conditions, your reservation may be refunded, canceled or modified if special handicapped needs cannot be met. TravelBank make no guarantee as to the ability of any Travel Supplier to meet the special needs of disabled clients.

7. Insurance. Should you have to cancel your Trip because of illness, injury or death to you or an immediate family member, depending on the type of coverage purchased, Trip cancellation insurance may protect some or all deposits and payments for both air and Trip costs. Trip cancellation and interruption penalties can be significant. Purchasing Trip cancellation insurance at a much later date may limit some of the coverage as to pre-existing or other conditions. It is Traveler's responsibility to understand the limitations of their insurance coverage and purchase additional insurance as needed. It is the Traveler's sole responsibility to research, evaluate and purchase appropriate coverage. Traveler agrees that TravelBank is not responsible for any uninsured losses.

8. Passports, Visas, Reciprocity Fees, and Travel Health Requirements. It is Traveler's sole responsibility to verify they have all the necessary visas, transit visas, passport, and vaccinations prior to travel and paid any required reciprocity fees for their destination.
- a) A full and valid passport is required for all persons traveling to any of the destinations outside the U.S. that we feature. You must obtain and have possession of a valid passport, all visas, permits and certificates, and vaccination certificates required for your entire Trip. Most international Trips require a passport valid until at least six (6) months beyond the scheduled end of your Itinerary.
 - b) Non-U.S. citizens should contact the appropriate consular office for any requirements pertaining to their Trip. Further information on entry requirements can be obtained from the State Department, by phone (202) 647-5335 or at <https://travel.state.gov/> or directly from the destination country's website.
 - c) Some countries require you to be in possession of a return ticket or exit ticket and have sufficient funds, etc. Similarly, certain countries require that the Traveler produce evidence of insurance/repatriation coverage before it will issue a visa.
 - d) You must carefully observe all applicable formalities and ensure that the surnames and forenames used for all passengers when making a booking and appearing in your travel documents (booking forms, travel tickets, vouchers, etc.), correspond exactly with those appearing on your passport, visas, etc.
 - e) Immunization requirements vary from country to country and even region to region. Up-to date information should be obtained from your local health department and consulate. - a) "Accommodations" are any lodgings in a dwelling or similar living quarters afforded to Travelers including, but not limited to, hotels, short term apartment, room or couch shares, motels, and resorts. TravelBank provides the accommodations for its Trips through third-party Suppliers and retains no ownership or management interest in those Accommodations. TravelBank does not guarantee the location or the amenities of the Accommodations nor the performance of the third-party Supplier. If any issues arise, please contact the owner/operators of the respective Accommodations directly.

- b) Accommodations and living standards may vary from country to country and region to region. TravelBank makes no guarantees about Accommodation living standards. Any additional costs, i.e. upgrades etc., will be borne by the Traveler.
- c) Prices of Accommodations are based on double occupancy unless described otherwise. If you prefer single Accommodations, some Accommodations require you to pay a single supplement fee which can vary depending on the Accommodation.

10. Air Transport.

- a) General: TravelBank' responsibilities in respect to air travel are limited by the relevant airline's Contract of Carriage. All airlines' Contracts of Carriage are available for view publicly on their websites and at their office branches. TravelBank is not able to specify the type of aircraft to be used by any airline or guarantee seat assignments. In addition, TravelBank is not responsible for losses due to cancelled flights, seats, or changed flight itineraries. Airlines retain the right to adjust flight times and schedules at any time, and these changes may include a change in the airline you fly, your aircraft type or destination. Such alterations do not constitute a significant change to your Trip Itinerary. If an airline cancels or delays a flight, you should work with the airline to ensure you arrive at your destination on or ahead of time. TravelBank will not provide any refund for Trips missed, in part or full, due to missed, cancelled or delayed flights, or other flight irregularities including, without limitation, denied boarding whether or not you are responsible for such denial. Airline flights may be overbooked. A person denied boarding on a flight may be entitled to a compensatory payment or other benefits from the airline. The rules for denied boarding are available at all ticket counters in your Contract of Carriage. The airline fulfilling your reservation may change from the airline displayed on our website.
- b) Flight Times: The flight times given by TravelBank are for general guidance only and are subject to change. Up-to-date flight times will be shown on the tickets. Traveler must check the tickets very carefully immediately upon receipt of the latest timings.
- c) Failure to Check-in on the outward journey (on a charter or scheduled flight) will automatically result in cancellation of the return flight by the airline. We would encourage you to contact us on the date of departure if you wish us to keep the return flight open; this decision remains at the discretion of the airline company.
- d) Flight Connections: If any booked flight connecting with your outbound or inbound flight is cancelled or delayed, the airlines reserve the right to provide that transport by any other means (coach/bus, train, etc.). If you organize your own connecting transport with the arrangements booked with TravelBank, we would advise that you reserve flexible or refundable tickets in order to avoid the risk of any financial loss. You are also advised not to make any important appointments for the day following your return date. TravelBank cannot accept responsibility for the consequences of delays (such as a cancelled scheduled flight) in the context of connecting transport organized by you.
- e) Non-Use of Flight Segments: You agree not to purchase a ticket or tickets containing flight segments that you will not be using, such as a "point-beyond", "hidden-city", or "back-to-back tickets". You further agree not to purchase a round-trip ticket that you plan to use only for one-way travel. You acknowledge that the airlines generally prohibit all such tickets, and therefore we do not guarantee that the airline will honor your ticket or tickets. You agree to indemnify TravelBank against any airline claims for the difference between the full fare of your actual itinerary and the value of the ticket or tickets that you purchased.
- f) Luggage: TravelBank assumes no liability for any loss or damage to baggage or personal effects, whether in transit to or from a Trip, or during a Trip. The airline is liable to you for the baggage you entrust to it only for the compensation contemplated in the international conventions and relevant statutes. In the event of damage, late forwarding, theft or loss of luggage, you should contact the your airline and declare the damage, absence or loss of your personal effects before leaving the airport, and then submit a declaration, attaching the originals of the following documents: the travel ticket, the baggage check-in slip, and the - declaration. It is recommended that you take out an insurance policy covering the value of your items.

- g) Additional and oversized baggage fees: Most airlines have their own policy regarding luggage. We recommend that you check with your airline ahead of time for any weight restrictions and additional charges relating to checked baggage. You will be responsible for paying to the airline any additional charges for checked or overweight baggage, including, but not limited to, golf bags and oversized luggage. If you exceed the weight limit set by your airline, and excess weight is permitted, you must pay a supplement directly to the airline at the airport.
 - h) Carriage of Hazardous Material: Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more. Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. Examples: Paints, lighter fluid, fireworks, tear gases, oxygen bottles, and radio-pharmaceuticals. There are special exceptions for small quantities (up to 70 ounces total) of medicinal and toilet articles carried in your luggage and certain smoking materials carried on your person.
 - i) Pregnancy: Different airlines have their own restrictions on when pregnant woman may fly on their plane, which can range from prohibiting flying anywhere from 7 to 30 days by the due date. It is your responsibility to check the restrictions of your particular airline. If you are denied boarding, TravelBank will not be responsible for any resulting cancellation fees and charges.
 - j) Stop-Overs: Direct flights may be "non-stop" or may involve one or more stop-overs (in the latter case this means the same flight by the airline, because the flight number remains the same). The same applies to connecting flights that may be subject to crew changes. When you reserve a scheduled or charter flight involving a stop-over in a town, and the second flight takes off from a different airport to the airport of arrival, ensure that you have sufficient time for reaching the second airport. The journey to the other airport is at your own expense. TravelBank will not be able to reimburse you for these costs, nor will it be liable if you miss the second flight.
 - k) Issuance of e-tickets: As of June 1st, 2008, the International Air Transport Association (IATA) has imposed new rules with regard to the issuing of air travel tickets. As of that date, travel agencies and airlines have an obligation to only issue travel tickets via electronic means (i.e. electronic ticket or "e-ticket"). Due to technical constraints to do with airline's restrictions in relation to certain requirements (infants under the age of 2, inter-airline agreements, groups, etc.), it may be impossible to issue an electronic ticket. Therefore, though a flight may be shown as available, it might prove impossible for us to honor your reservation. This situation, which is outside our control, will not result in liability on our part. If we cannot issue you an e-ticket, we will contact you to propose an alternative route solution. This could involve a different tariff and/or additional costs for which you would be responsible. In the event of the absence of an alternative solution, your refusal to pay any tariff difference, or if the issuance of tickets proves impossible, we would be forced to cancel your reservation at no cost to you. We will provide you with a full refund within 30 days after determining that there is no alternative solution possible.
